

Supplier declaration on the Stora Enso Supplier Code of Conduct

We herewith confirm that our company in all respects complies with the May 2014 version of the Stora Enso Supplier Code of Conduct (SE SCoC) attached and which we have read and understood. We understand and acknowledge that compliance can be reached either by implementing the SE SCoC in our organization or by having our own sustainability rules and regulations, management systems and sustainability organization in place, which fulfil in all respects the requirements of the SE SCoC and which will be kept operational during the term of the business relationship. Our own sustainability rules and regulations or the SE CoC, whichever is stricter, will form an integral part of each contract between our Company and Stora Enso, and our performance/delivery in relation to Stora Enso shall be in compliance with the said rules. Stora Enso has the right to invoke our sustainability rules and regulations or the SE SCoC, whichever is stricter, as towards us and we grant to Stora Enso the rights according to clauses 7 and 8 of the SE SCoC.

Stora Enso Supplier Code of Conduct

May 2014

Introduction

This Supplier Code of Conduct (CoC) outlines the minimum standards Stora Enso requires its Suppliers (as defined below) to comply with when doing business with Stora Enso in addition to observing all laws and regulations governing their activities. Further guidance on how to interpret and implement this CoC is given in the Practical Guide for Stora Enso Suppliers.

This CoC forms an integral part of all contracts between the Supplier and Stora Enso.

1. Definitions

A “Supplier” is any person or legal entity which provides Stora Enso with products or services. In addition to Suppliers who have a direct contractual relationship with Stora Enso, this definition also includes the Suppliers’ sub-suppliers.

“Stora Enso Representatives” include the company’s employees and legal representatives.

2. Management systems

The Supplier shall have appropriate management systems in place to enable adherence to this CoC or its own equivalent code of conduct, whichever is stricter, as well as all other relevant and applicable laws and regulations. The functioning and quality of the management system shall be in proportion to the size, complexity and risk environment of the Supplier’s business. This means that, at a minimum:

2.1 the Supplier shall adopt a systematic approach to the assessment, mitigation and management of risks related to human and labour rights, occupational health and safety, responsible

- business and environmental impact (hereafter referred to as “Code of Conduct Issues”),
- 2.2 the Supplier shall adopt measurable performance targets in relation to Code of Conduct Issues and define related actions to reach these targets with a view to ensure continuous performance improvement,
- 2.3 all applicable laws, regulations and contractual terms governing the Supplier’s assignments shall be duly applied and communicated, with sufficient training provided to relevant employees and business partners,
- 2.4 the Supplier shall have systems in place to enable the reporting of Code of Conduct Issues-related grievances (e.g. a whistle-blowing system),
- 2.5 the Supplier shall duly ensure and monitor that its own suppliers and sub-suppliers comply with this CoC or their own equivalent code of conduct. The Supplier is liable for the performance of its sub-suppliers as for its own work.

3. Human and labour rights

3.1 Human rights

The Supplier is required:

- 3.1.1 to respect human rights and not be complicit in human rights violations within its sphere of influence,
- 3.1.2 to duly map its human rights impacts whenever the need for such action is agreed,
- 3.1.3 to have in place adequate remedial mechanisms in case of any human rights violations.

3.2 Basic workers' rights

The Supplier is required:

- 3.2.1 not to employ any workers below 15 years (14 years in certain developing countries) or the minimum age according to national legislation, whichever is higher (in line with the ILO Convention 138 on child labour),
- 3.2.2 to ensure that employing young people above minimum age but under 18 years does not jeopardise their education, health, safety or morals,
- 3.2.3 to fully recognise employees' right to organise, belong to a union and bargain collectively,
- 3.2.4 not to use any forms of involuntary labour,
- 3.2.5 not to discriminate against any employee,
- 3.2.6 to treat all employees fairly and respectfully.

3.3 Wages and working hours

The Supplier is required:

- 3.3.1 to pay employees at least the minimum wage and applicable overtime wages defined by national laws or any applicable collective agreements,
- 3.3.2 to apply normal working hours that comply with applicable law and collective agreements and where no such laws or collective agreements exist working hours will not exceed 48 hours per working week on a regular basis,
- 3.3.3 to provide all employees with at least one rest day in seven consecutive working days unless regulated otherwise by applicable laws.

4. Occupational health and safety (OHS)

The Supplier is required:

- 4.1 to fulfil all applicable legal OHS requirements,
- 4.2 to have a written OHS policy of its own, to demonstrate management's commitment to OHS, and to assign responsibility for OHS within its organisation,
- 4.3 to ensure that operational controls such as rules and procedures are in place and communicated to all employees,
- 4.4 to have emergency preparedness and response procedures in place,
- 4.5 to increase its employees' awareness of health and safety issues, to enhance safety culture through open communications, and to ensure that its staff have received appropriate OHS training.

- 4.6 to measure and monitor its OHS performance and OHS hazards with the help of properly conducted workplace inspections and audits,
- 4.7 to report and investigate all health and safety incidents.

5. Environmental impact

The Supplier is required:

- 5.1 to fulfil all environmental requirements defined in relevant laws, regulations and environmental permits,
- 5.2 to assign responsibility for environmental issues within its organisation,
- 5.3 to ensure that its employees have appropriate know-how and experience in relation to environmental issues, as well as resources to enable them effectively to meet their responsibilities,
- 5.4 to ensure that written instructions covering all processes with potential environmental impacts, such as the storage and handling of hazardous materials, are available and that the relevant information is communicated to all employees involved,
- 5.5 to proactively work to prevent emergencies and ensure the capacity to react appropriately to such events, by analysing, identifying and adopting suitable preventive and corrective measures,
- 5.6 to handle environmental violations and complaints systematically and communicate them to employees and external stakeholders, including Stora Enso if affected,
- 5.7 to provide Stora Enso with up-to-date material safety data sheets (MSDS or SDS), as applicable, and any other relevant documents and information requested by Stora Enso.

6. Responsible business

The Supplier is required to conduct its business in full compliance with Stora Enso's Business Practice Policy or the Suppliers' own equivalent ethical rules, whichever are stricter. This means, among other things, that the Supplier is required:

- 6.1 to conduct business in full compliance with all applicable antitrust and fair competition laws,
- 6.2 to prevent situations where there is a conflicts of interest between the Supplier and Stora Enso,

- 6.3 to act in compliance with all applicable anti-corruption laws, by, among other things, refusing to receive or offer bribes, facilitation payments or anything of value for the purpose of obtaining or retaining business or any improper benefit or advantage,
- 6.4 to act in compliance with all rules and regulations related to the safety and quality requirements of products and services, including rules defined by Stora Enso,
- 6.5 to transparently and accurately record and disclose details of its business activities, corporate structure, financial situation and performance in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.

When doing business with Stora Enso this means among other things that:

- 6.6 Stora Enso Representatives shall always pay for their own travel and accommodation costs when visiting the Supplier, conferences, reference plants e t c,
- 6.7 Stora Enso Representatives shall not be offered any gifts, hospitality or expenses that could be considered unreasonable or inappropriate with regard to possible business transactions.

7. General requirements

The Supplier is required:

- 7.1 to immediately report any non-compliance with this CoC to Stora Enso. The Supplier and any of its employees may report their concerns confidentially to:

Head of Internal Audit
Stora Enso AB
P.O. Box 70395
SE-107 24 Stockholm, Sweden.
See web page www.storaenso.com for more details.

- 7.2 to disclose information and data regarding issues covered by this CoC at the request of Stora Enso, unless this would conflict with its statutory obligations on disclosure of information.
- 7.3 to allow Stora Enso, or any third party authorised by Stora Enso and reasonably acceptable to the Supplier, to conduct in the presence of the Supplier an audit of the Supplier's operations relevant for this CoC including but not limited to the Supplier's facilities, and relevant extracts from books and records. At the Supplier's request, the parties involved in any such audit shall enter into a confidentiality agreement regarding the circumstances disclosed in the audit.

8. Enforcement

- 8.1 If Stora Enso finds that the Supplier is not meeting the requirements and expectations set out in this CoC, Stora Enso will offer guidance specifying which issues need to be corrected or improved. The Supplier must then take corrective actions promptly as advised by Stora Enso. Stora Enso nevertheless reserves the right to cancel outstanding orders, suspend future orders or terminate the contract with the Suppliers in case of a material breach of this CoC.
- 8.2 Should the main contract between Stora Enso and the Supplier, to which this CoC forms an Appendix, contain separate termination rules, it is nevertheless understood by both parties that breach of this CoC may be considered a material breach of contract, thus entitling Stora Enso to terminate the contract.
